

TRAINING OPPORTUNITIES

Indigenous Medicines & Ceremony (Rivers West District for Sport, Culture & Recreation Inc.)

This event, featuring speakers Cynthia Young, Junior Elder, and Tinisha Young, Knowledge Keeper, welcomes all to learn about Indigenous ceremonies and traditions.

When: November 15, 2023

Where: St. Walburg, SK *Register online

Impact Measurement for Nonprofits: How to Increase Funding & Improve Retention (Keela)

In this webinar, subject matter expert, Traci Shirachi, CEO of The Mark, will cover impact measurement or impact reporting for non-profits, and what organizations of all sizes can do to create a data evaluation framework that addresses both program evaluation and impact measurement.

When: November 16, 2023

Where: Online *Register online

Knowledge Sovereignty Workshop (kihci-okâwîmâw askiy Knowledge Centre)

Led by kêtê-aya, Joseph Naytowhow, Cultural Advisor, Indigenous Law Centre, University of Saskatchewan, this conversation will focus on ethically responsible ways in which traditional knowledge is accessed, earned, and shared.

When: November 16, 2023

Where: Saskatoon, SK *Register online

Building Bridges Through Culture: From Many Peoples Strength (Saskatchewan Sport, Culture & Recreation Districts)

This workshop will equip participants with skills and practical ways to engage the public. It will cover principles of engagement with a focus on equity for diverse community members and offer insight from the Multicultural Council of Saskatchewan research on promising practices for intercultural relations.

When: November 21, 2023

Where: Online *Register online

Social Media Writing for Public Sector and Non-profit Organizations (Centre of Excellence for Public Sector Marketing)

This full-day workshop will cover writing for social media by adapting your professional and brand voice to a fast-paced and attention-consuming environment. You will learn and develop essential writing skills to engage your audience on social media and translate their attention into action.

When: November 23, 2023

Where: Online *Register online

Volunteer Management (Museums Association of Saskatchewan)

This course will cover volunteer trends and motivation, and community analysis. You will also examine the relationship between the museum and community and its impact on volunteerism, learn how to write a volunteer policy, and understand the volunteer management cycle.

When: November 25, 2023

Where: Regina, SK *Register online by November 17.

Financial Health & Sustainability for Non-Profits Webinar (SaskCulture)

This session, led by James Barr, KPMG, will guide non-profits to understanding financial risk, assessing financial health, and identifying the warning signs of declining financial health, to help ensure sustainability and effectiveness in fulfilling its mission. Free for SaskCulture Members.

When: November 27, 2023

Where: Online *Register online

Orientation: Setting Your Volunteers Up For Success (South East Sport, Culture & Recreation District)

This webinar will examine what tools volunteers need to understand their role in an organization. It will look at how to onboard board and committee members and what they need to know before they start their journey.

When: December 6, 2023

Where: Online *Register online