

TRAINING OPPORTUNITIES

Public Arts Equity in Action Webinar (Culture Days)

Join this webinar to learn about “Spiralling Outwardly for Equity in Public Arts” — a Framework designed to assist public arts organizations develop equitable practices for employees and community members.

When: February 22, 2024

Where: Online *Register online

Archaeology and Saskatchewan Museums - Collections, Interpretations, and Ethics (Museums Association of Saskatchewan)

This two-day course, offered in partnership with the Saskatchewan Archaeological Society, will provide participants with the information and skills they need for the proper curation and management of archaeological materials in Saskatchewan museums.

When: February 24 - 25, 2024

Where: Saskatoon, SK *Register online

Navigating the Shifting Sands of Leadership Workshop (Saskatchewan Towards Offering Partnership Solutions to Violence)

In this workshop, Liz Weaver will highlight the need for collaborative leadership and the mindsets and skillsets required to build effective collaborative leadership approaches. As a participant, you will gain new ways of thinking and engage in learning practical skills and applying them to your collaborative and community-based work.

When: February 29, 2024

Where: Online *Register online

Grant Writing Workshop (Rivers West District for Sport, Culture & Recreation Inc.)

This session will cover the development of a grant strategy, the best strategies for finding grants, and how to set up protocols for tracking and delivering the outcomes for repeated success.

When: March 5, 2024

Where: Thunderchild First Nation, SK *Register online

Centering Equity: Anti-Racism in Recruiting and Hiring (Equity in the Center)

Geared towards HR professionals, this two-part, interactive session challenges the status quo of white dominant culture in recruitment. Led by principal consultants Erica Nicole Griffin, PhD, and Jamie Joanou, PhD, with over a decade of expertise, the workshop delves into reshaping hiring processes, from position descriptions to salary negotiations.

When: March 5, 2024

Where: Online *Register online

Telling a Story: How to Write a Better Grant (CARFAC SASK and CARFAC ALBERTA)

This webinar with Dwayne Martineau and Nic Wilson will explain how to tell the right story with the right budget for your next grant. After these two presentations, there will be a thirty-minute Q&A based on attendees' questions.

When: March 6, 2024

Where: Online *Register online

The Changing Landscape of Canadian Donors (Keelabs)

In this free webinar, join Jennifer Robins, NFP Lead at Environics Analytics, to learn more about the changing landscape of Canadian donors. Attendees will be able to leverage the learnings from this session and apply them to overarching strategic goals in their organization.

When: March 26, 2024

Where: Online *Register online